CANAL NEWS .- The Cumberland, Md., News says all the coal companies, with the exception of the American Company, have reduced the rate of tonnage on coal to Georgetown to 80 cents. The News says the movement was publicly inaugurated by the Hampshire and Baltimore Company, and was occasioned, they claim, by the action of certain companies in privately cutting under the prevailing rates. | ment. The News further learns that the boatmen have accepted the reduction without much

The Allegacian has the following report from along the line: On Friday night last the H. G. Wagner struck on a rock on South Branch level, owing to being forced by a passing boat too far on to the berm side. She had a hole stove in her bow about two feet square, and sank at the head of the lock. Fortunately Superinten dent Hammond was on the spot, and in conjunction with his efficient assistant, Mr. Sprigg. a force of men was put to work, and by the next evening the steamer was repaired and on the way to her destination.

The A. J. Clark, an American boat, also in a sinking condition for two days, was rendered assistance by the canal company. She left Tunnel level on Friday, but it was doubted if she would reach port.

There was also another vessel, whose name we could not learn, in a sinking condition on South Branch level on Siturday last, but all the company's force at that point being at work on the Wagner, no assistance could be rendered

NEW YORK, July 9 .- Letters have be a re caived by a merchane in this city from Santo Domingo stating that the elections had been held, and that General Iguacio Maria Gonzales was elected President for a term of two years. Gorzales at the time was in the interior, and a commission was sent to escort him to the cani tal. Meanwhile fresh troubles broke out which threatened to be the cause of a new revolution. Gouzales was accused of having ceded to Hayti part of the northern territory of Santo Demingo without the consent of Congress and entirely upon his own responsibility. This accusation had caused great excitement in the capital,-The action of Genzales was declared to be un constitutional, and it was said that threats were made of shooting Gorzales if he should enter the capital. A telegram received last Saturday stated that Gen. Luperon was President, broken out.
